U.S. Pressure Brings Commie Flags Down

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP) — Communist authorities relented under U.S. pressure today in the latest border hassle, hauling down East German flags from locomotives for two U.S. troop trains bound for West Germany. The May Day flag dispute caused a four-hour delay at the East German border when the U.S. train commanders refused to let the transports cross East German territory while the pennants flew.

Shortly after midnight, the East Germans provided engines without flags and the trains made an undisturbed trip across 110 miles of East Germany.

Western observers viewed the incident as another attempt by the East Germans to establish additional precedents for control of the access routes to West Berlin. The Western Allies do not recognize the East German regime and have resisted the Communists' tactics of trying to whittle away Western rights in the isolated city.

The two trains—one bound for Frankfurt with 144 passengers and the other for Bremerhaven with eight—left West Berlin shortly after 6 p.m.

At the Potsdam border point, East German authorities provided locomotives as usual but both engines flew East German flags, apparently in honor of May Day.

The train commanders jammed on the emergency brakes when they noticed the flags. The East Germans ordered the locomotives away, leaving the cars stalled on the tracks in the Berlin suburb. A Soviet officer was seen nearby. The East Germans told the U.S. commanders their cars would not be allowed to proceed unless the Americans gave in. The East Germans customarily provide locomotives for the crossing.

The U.S. commanders appeared to be under direct orders to hold their ground.

Sources said the East Germans tried the same thing on a troop train bound from West Germany to West Berlin Friday morning. U.S. soldiers pulled down the banners and the train continued on its way.

Under a postwar agreement with the Soviets, the Allies have road, rail and air access to West Berlin. For years the Soviet have sought to win recognition of the East German regime by turning over control of the routes to the East Germans.

Testimony Against the Prayer Bill

By JOHN BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A constitutional amendment to permit prayers in the public schools would produce "an utterly impossible and chaotic situation," says a Columbia University professor.

Testifying before the House Judiciary Committee, Prof. Philip H. Phenix predicted it would require a national agency to supervise the various religious exercises that would blossom under such an amendment.

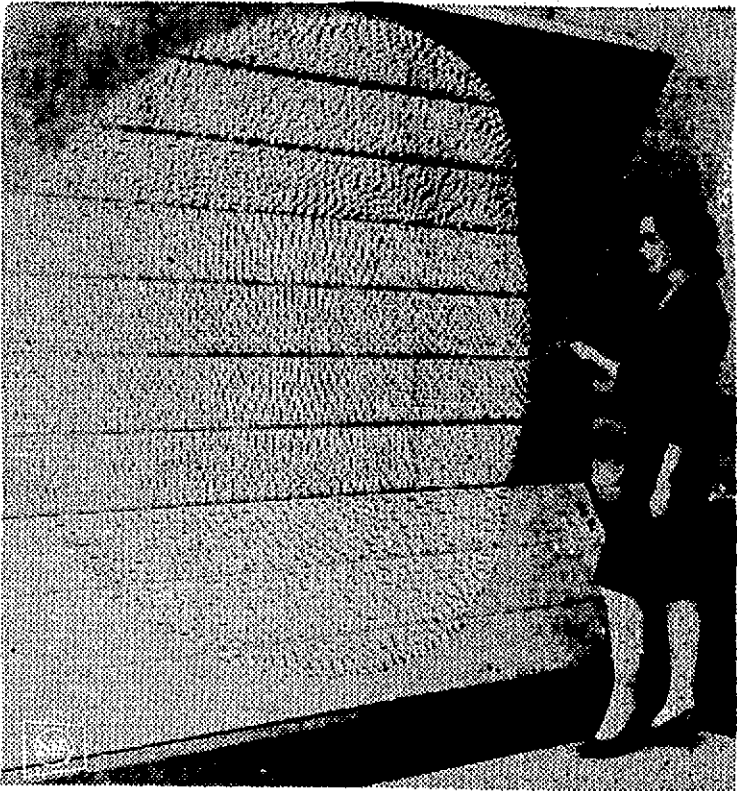

Phenix was one of three witnesses who opposed any prayer amendment Thursday after the committee heard strong endorsements of school prayers by Roman Catholic Bishop Fulton J. Sheen of New York and Alabama's Gov. George C. Wallace.

Phenix said the principle of government action in religious life established by such an amendment would open the way for government suppression of religion.

"It is a matter of simple logic," he said, "that we Americans cannot enjoy the constitutional protection of religious liberties and at the same time authorize the public schools to conduct religious exercises involving prayers and Scripture readings."

Weather

Partly cloudy to occasionally cloudy and mild through Sunday with a few light showers early today. Heavy thundershowers on Sunday.

Hope Citizens Being Treated to Magic Carpet Ride During Festival of Arts Activities

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

"Cultural art is a magical adventure," said Mrs. H. D. Stanhope of Texarkana, and the citizens of Hope are being treated to a magic carpet ride to many kinds of art during the first ten days of May in the Festival of the Arts which is being held in our community for the first time.

That brings us to the next logical question, "What is art?" It is different things to different people, but art has been defined as "the creation of any type of beauty." Just as art varies with individual tastes so does beauty; again a definition is elusive.

We know, though, that to some art is a luxury while others regard it as a necessity. And today it may even be regarded as a fad among some who collect objects of art as a status symbol. Because many regard it as a good investment and desire it for that reason alone, artists may paint only for the market. Artistic endeavors are not limited to canvases, though.

Music is another form of art which is most familiar to people everywhere. It is fitting that National Music Week, May 3-10, will be observed during our local Festival of the Arts. The theme for this 41st observance is "Make Music Your Keynote for Living."

Our festival actually started yesterday with the Clothes Line Fair on the City Hall lawn featuring the work of the elementary schools and sponsored by the Junior Auxiliary. Then, last night the first performance of the Hope Community Theater presentation, "The Brides of March," was held at the City Hall, and the second performance will be tonight at 8 p. m. The exhibits from the Clothes Line Fair are on display inside the City Hall now, so both forms of art are available for those attending the play.

Tomorrow special musical service will be observed in the churches, and next week music will be a feature of the civic clubs in their regular meetings. Members of the Friday Music Club will visit the rest homes and hospitals with entertainment during the week, and musical programs will be given in the schools.

On Tuesday in the Community Room of the First National Bank, the Home Demonstration Clubs are to show a film on "Art in the home," and various store windows will feature the work of local artists. Girl Scouts will have a display of handicraft in Scott Store window during the week.

The newly organized Hope Chapter of the Arkansas Arts Center will exhibit paintings obtained from the Center in Little Rock, and these will be on display in the Roy Anderson Insurance Office lobby on South Main. An exhibit of books on art and music may be seen at the Hempstead County Library.

Friday afternoon at the First Assembly of God Church the Friday Music Club will give a program featuring the songs of Lillian Carrigan Rounton, an honorary member of the club. These melodies range from the simple and somber to the lively ly and lifting, a type to please everyone.

As a fitting climax to a week of musical treats, the Hope High School Band and the Community Chorus under the direction of Jon Barbarotto will give a joint program of favorite choral and orchestral works at the First Baptist Church on Sunday, May 10. Among the selections will be "Largo" by Handel, "The Pilgrims' Chorus" by Wagner, and the Festival arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

"Art is the philosophy of the time in which it is produced," and you can see and hear a variety of examples of this during the Festival of the Arts in Hope. It is hoped that every citizen will take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy our Festival of the Arts.

Public Asked to Wear a Poppy May 30

Poppy Day, the annual Memorial Day of Tribute to America's defenders, is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary units throughout the nation as a salute to our fighting men. The observance takes place yearly preceding Memorial Day holiday in most communities.

Disabled veterans who, through the rehabilitation program of the Auxiliary, are recipients from contributions made on Poppy Day, are paid for their work. Dimes and dollars given on this day are a major source of support for a continuing program of rehabilitation and child welfare directed by the Auxiliary.

Throughout the state, May 9th, 16th or 23rd, the poppies to be sold by American Legion in North Little Rock and Fayetteville V. A. hospitals. Poppy Day in Hope will be May 30.

"Wear A Poppy and give your thanks to the living and to the departed who fought to save and perpetuate our American way of life."

Orders Union Vote at Forrest City

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Labor Relations Board announced today that a new election on union representation must be held at General Industries Electronics Co. at Forrest City, Ark.

An election was held at the plant Sept. 27, 1963. Employees turned down representation by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL-CIO). The vote was 360 to 94.

A three-member panel of the NLRB decided 2-1 that the company led employees to believe that if they voted for union representation it "would inevitably lead to a strike, violence and likely loss of jobs" should the union "attempt to achieve better conditions of employment."

Boyd Leedom wrote a dissenting opinion, saying the company actions, when viewed separately, were not sufficient to "constitute interference with the election."

6.2 Million Chicks Started

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Crop Reporting Service said Thursday that Arkansas producers started 6,293,000 broiler chicks during the week ended April 25.

This was one per cent more than in the week before. Only 621,000 of the placements were shipped into Arkansas.

WR Decision Apparently Paid Off

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller's decision to hire four men to build the Republican Party at the county level has paid off handsomely.

Reports to the Republican National Committee's office indicate that the GOP has come up with 154 candidates for state and county offices in 34 counties for this year's elections.

This is more than twice as many candidates as the Republicans have fielded before.

The list includes, for the first time, candidates for lieutenant governor and secretary of state. The GOP ticket is headed by gubernatorial candidate Rockefeller, and two candidates for 3rd district congressman.

At the county level, Republicans are seeking every office, ranging from county judge to justice of the peace, and in some North Arkansas counties, the GOP has a full slate of candidates for all offices.

There are 23 Republicans running for state representative, three seeking Senate seats, 13 running for county judge and eight for sheriff. Most of the candidates are political newcomers, but a few are incumbents.

Enthusiasm ran so high in Searcy County that two Republicans filed for county judge and two for sheriff. Rex Elliott filed against Beal Sutterfield, the incumbent, in the sheriff's race. In Fulton County, Dillard Collins, who was elected as an independent two years ago, filed as a Republican this year.

The Republican field men are Truman Altenbaumer of Ashdown, Marion Farmer of Pine Bluff, Lewis Smith of Little Rock and Jim Atkins of Hope. Rockefeller's hiring of them renewed an intra-party dispute between Rockefeller and state party Chairman William Spicer of Fort Smith. Spicer charged Rockefeller with interfering with his party organizational duties.

The Republican executive committee approved the hiring, however.

Searcy County also produced a Republican contest for state representative between Deway Massy, a former representative and Mrs. Jessie Henley, mother of former GOP state Chairman Ben Henley.

Other Republican candidates for representative include J. H. Duren in Pike County, Mrs. Chloe Willard in Yell, Clare Wolf in Logan, Roy M. Haynes in Polk, Henry Ward in Nevada, Bobby Campbell in Hempstead, Tony Spigner in Little Rock, Charles Peacock III in Jackson, Floyd Aderton in Van Buren.

George E. Harlow in Marion, L. F. Patrick in Madison, O. D. Pendergrass in Benton, Ted Standley in Carroll, Mrs. M. S. Arpin and A. O. White in Washington, E. G. Basinger in Jefferson, and Mrs. Rufus Norman, Cecil Haynes Higgins and Morgan S. Eads in Pulaski.

There also is a representative contest in Perry County, where Bill Gibson and Mrs. B.O. Downey have filed.

The list of county judges includes one incumbent, Arthur Martin in Washington County. Other candidates for this office include John White in Yell County, Buster Tritt in Logan, Leslie Hepp in Perry, Raymond Apollos in Pike, James E. Doherty in Jackson, John B. Sherwood in Faulkner, Gene Tolliver in Marion, Bill Montgomery in Madison, H. A. Webb in White and William Scott in Stone.

Running for sheriff, besides the two in Searcy County, are G. H. Coffman Jr. in Montgomery, Bill McAtee in Clark, Jake Williams in Van Buren, Joe C. Maraz in Marion, Clifford Thomas in Madison and Carl White in Washington.

According to the records in the committee's office, two of the candidates — Lynden E. Hoffman of Mena, running for municipal judge, and B. E. Gilbert, running for justice of the peace in Polk County — have no Democratic opposition.

U.S. Carrier Sunk By Reds In Saigon

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The USS Card, heroic World War II aircraft carrier credited with sinking seven Nazi U-boats, was sunk by a Communist bomb in Saigon harbor today.

All 73 crewmen escaped injury when a Viet Cong terrorist underwater mine blasted a hole in the ship, sending her down with only her flight deck and superstructure remaining above water.

It was the first loss of an important U.S. naval vessel in the Viet Nam war against Communist guerrillas and the first sinking of a large American warship in hostilities since World War II.

U.S. demolition experts believe the Viet Cong swam or crawled under a wharf where the Card was docked at low tide in the 40-foot-deep Saigon River, attached the explosive to the ship and detonated it electrically.

Her days of glory past and dwarfed by giant carriers, the Card was assigned to the U.S. Military Sea Transportation Service and classified by the Navy as an aircraft ferry. Though a naval vessel, she is manned by civilians.

In World War II, the Card won a Presidential Unit Citation for sinking seven U-boats in the Atlantic in 1943. She acted in concert with the destroyers Borie, Goff and Barry and together they were believed to have sent a dozen or more submarines to the bottom, the most in naval history.

The four-vessel team escorted troop convoys and freighters across the submarine-infested Atlantic, the Card often acting as a decoy to trap U-boats in a web of depth charges laid by the destroyers. Planes from the Card protected the convoys.

The Card, which weighs 15,700 tons loaded and measures 496 feet long, is less than half as long and only one-fifth as heavy as the huge nuclear-powered attack carrier Enterprise, the world's largest. She resembles a regular aircraft carrier, only smaller.

Immediately after the pre-dawn explosion tore a hole in the engine-room bulkhead, the Card began settling to the muddy river bottom. She normally draws 26 feet when loaded, and the amount of sinkage was reported to be about 22 feet.

Borge Langeland, 49, the civilian captain from New Orleans, said there was a possibility the vessel—loaded with old helicopters bound for the United States—might capsize.

Damage to the stricken ship had not been fully determined. Langeland said it probably would be many weeks before the Card could be repaired, refloated and made fit for sea again.

The Card arrived in Saigon Thursday with a load of helicopters and fighter-bombers and was scheduled to sail for the United States later today with the cargo of old helicopters.

This Is Switch for Any Union

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—The Amalgamated Meat Cutters & Butcher Workmen of North America, AFL-CIO, pulled a surprise switch on an employer.

Just before opening its annual northwest conference Thursday, the union presented Harry J. Beernink, general manager of Western Farmers Association, with an honorary membership in appreciation of his being a "great guy."

Beernink won't have to worry about any conflict of interest in the next round of negotiations with the union. He's retiring June 1.

Russia to Finance India Steel Plant

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Soviet Union has a need to finance construction of the Bokaro steel plant for India, which the United States turned down, the Indian government announced today.

Moscow will provide aid initially for the 1.5-million-ton first stage of the plant, Steel Minister Chidambaram Subramanian told Parliament.

This will be expandable ultimately to 4 million ingot tons of capacity, he said.

Television Passes New Milestone

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

WASHINGTON (AP)—American television passed another milestone today.

Any video set made in this country from now on must be capable of receiving 82—instead of 12—television channels.

The result, as time goes by, should be more stations, more program variety, and better television reception throughout the United States.

Congress passed the all-channel television set requirement in 1962 and made it effective today to give the industry time to adapt itself to the new law.

It also applies to any sets imported into this country.

Most television sets on the market today are equipped to receive only the 12 very high frequency channels from 2 through 13.

But television broadcasting, says the Federal Communications Commission—which originally asked Congress for the all-channel receiver law—has outgrown those channels.

Ready to accommodate the overflow are 70 ultra-high-frequency channels. More than 100 UHF stations are operating today, but many television owners are not familiar with them because their sets are equipped for only VHF reception.

The 12 VHF channels can accommodate no more than 650 television stations. Thus, while some larger cities have several such stations, many are limited by FCC allocations to two or fewer. And some cities have none.

But the 70 UHF channels can accommodate up to 3,000 new stations, promising more communities a chance of having their own stations and offering viewers a greater choice of programs.

The FCC points out that the new law does not require owners of VHF sets to buy new receivers.

Viewers have several options if they wish to take immediate advantage of the UHF stations in their areas. They may buy one of the new all-channel sets now on the market. They may have a UHF tuner installed in their VHF set.

They may add a UHF converter to their VHF set. Or they may install what is known as a strip tuner in their present set, allowing them to tune in one or more available UHF channels.

With all-channel reception mandatory, the FCC said, "TV broadcasting will find ample room in UHF to grow on a national basis."

Steel Seems to Glow With Optimism

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's $16-billion steel industry, biding its nails at this time in 1962 and 1963, is brimming with optimism.

Production is at a gallop. Major producers report first-quarter profits up in many cases 50 to 75 per cent from a year ago. There is no sign of a serious labor dispute.

Edmund F. Martin, board chairman of the second-ranking firm, Bethlehem Steel Corp., told newsmen 1964 might prove a record year for steel companies assuming there is no strike in the auto industry.

The main threat to tranquility, a federal indictment charging eight big steelmakers with price fixing in 1955-61, has been crowded pretty much into the background for the time being. The companies have pleaded innocent.

Two years ago steel executives were nursing wounds from their run-in with the late President John F. Kennedy over an attempted price increase, later withdrawn. A year ago anxiety over a possible strike had not dissolved in a contract settlement.

With the economy on a prolonged and strung upbeat, the market for steel is the best in five years or longer on a sustained basis. It points to a possible bettering of the 117-million-ton industry production record set in 1955.

Martin was the first top executive to publicly acknowledge the prospect. Others, while solidly optimistic, cautiously have steered clear of direct comparisons involving the 1964 outlook.

Mill operating rates have climbed slowly but steadily since last August. Now, steel is being poured at an annual rate of about 128 million tons.

Two more major firms checked in Thursday with glowing profit reports. Bethlehem, with a 47 per cent gain from the 1963 first quarter, and Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., with a 62 per cent gain.

Martin observed that the year-earlier comparison was with a doldrums period when Bethlehem's earnings were dragged for 1962 to a 15-year low.

Can Wild Animal Be Stolen?

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—"Can a wild animal be stolen?"

That question posed by a Municipal Court judge brought proceedings to a halt Thursday.

On trial was Monroe B. Miles Sr., 53, charged with attempted larceny of a duck and resisting arrest. He maintained the duck had lost some feathers and he was taking it home to help it.

Hoffa Trying For Reprisal To Ex-Buddy

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa reportedly is trying to strike back at a former pal and associate who testified against him.

A source close to Hoffa said the groundwork is being laid for possible trusteeship action to seize the Baton Rouge, La., Teamsters local of Edward G. Partin, who turned star government witness in Hoffa's conviction in February on jury-tampering charges.

The stocky Teamster chief sat white-faced with anger when Partin showed up as a surprise witness in Chattanooga, Tenn., to testify that he heard Hoffa offer up to $20,000 to bribe a juror in a previous federal case.

His testimony led to the government's first conviction of Hoffa in several attempts. Hoffa drew an eight-year sentence, which he is appealing.

Since then Hoffa's troubles have snowballed. He now is on trial in Chicago for conspiracy to defraud the union's pension funds. He also faces a high-level internal dispute over payment of his huge legal fees.

Partin, business agent of Baton Rouge Local 5, is charged with embezzling union funds in an indictment dating from before he turned against Hoffa.

A high Teamsters official confirmed that Partin's activities are being investigated by top echelon union representatives.

"There was a meeting with Murray W. Miller in Baton Rouge last week in an investigation that may be a preliminary to establishment of a trusteeship," the official said.

Miller, Dallas, Tex., is an international vice president and member of the Teamsters' ruling 15-man executive board.

The high Teamsters source said a trusteeship over Partin's local "would call for the international revoking temporarily the charter of the local, making it a ward of the international until its affairs are straightened out."

Such action would freeze out present officers, including Partin.

It is uncertain whether Hoffa can succeed in wresting Partin's local from him. He has the authority to put a local under trusteeship. But the local can appeal to the executive board, which recently has shown signs of restiveness. Some of its members rebelled last week against continued union payment of Hoffa's lawyers' bills after the Teamsters general counsel warned that he believed the practice was illegal.

Hoffa reportedly is looking for an outside legal expert in an attempt to reverse his opinion. Hoffa's legal bills are estimated to run in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Farm Product Prices Show Small Dip

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a report that could have political significance, the Agriculture Department reports that farm product prices dipped 2 per cent in April and to the lowest level in relation to prices farmers pay since August 1963.

A price report issued Thursday said the farm product price level in mid-April was 75 per cent of the parity price goal of the federal farm programs. This compared with 77 per cent in mid-March 1963 and 78 per cent in mid-April 1963.

The decline last month largely reflected lower prices paid farmers for cattle, milk and lettuce. Reductions in prices of these three commodities were offset in part by higher prices for oranges, wheat and potatoes.

Democrats have been in the political forefront in insisting that farmers are entitled to 100 per cent parity. Republicans are expected to make an issue of the farm price decline.

Prices paid by farmers for goods and services used in production and in family living went up in April one-third of 1 per cent to a new record high. Cattle prices on April 15 are down 12 per cent from a year earlier.

Only three commodities — oranges, grapefruit and sweet potatoes — brought parity prices or more in mid-April. Chickens, on the other hand, were down to 59 per cent of parity.

Murder Trial in Progress

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The first degree murder trial of Clyde Griffin, 75, of the Mount Carmel Community near Newark, resumed this morning after opening Monday in circuit court at Batesville.

Griffin is charged in the Feb. 4 shooting of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Wyatt of Rosie. The shooting took place on Crow Island between Oil Trough and Rosie.

Prosecutor Norman Harkey qualified the all-white, all-male jury for the death penalty.

Most of the opening session was consumed with the selection of the jury and opening statements by attorneys. A total of 46 potential jurors were excused from the case, 22 because they opposed capital punishment.

Defense attorney Claude Erwin told the court in his opening statement that Griffin shot the Wyatts after Mrs. Wyatt struck him with a stick, wounding his head. Erwin said the Wyatts were trespassing on Griffin's property and had done

U.S. Plans to Stay on Isles Indefinitely

By ROBERT EUNSON

NAK, Okinawa (AP)—"We will remain here so long as threats and tensions continue to exist."

When Gen. Caraway was asked if political control of the Ryukyus be returned to Japan with the United States still retaining its vast network of air and military bases, Caraway replied "anything is possible."

"Article Three of the Japanese peace treaty says the United States is given—and the Japanese agreed to it—any and all powers of administration, legislative and judicial, in the Ryukyu Islands. The United States can exercise these powers so long as it wishes," he said.

Asked if Okinawa actually might be written off in case of an all-out war because of its proximity to the Chinese mainland, Caraway snapped: "This is an attitude that is developing in the United States, especially among Washington newsmen. We will remain here so long as threats and tensions continue to exist."

One school of thought among this island's 95,000 American inhabitants, including the 3rd Marine Division, is that Okinawa would be safer than the mainland since both the Communists and the United States would be blasting at each other's homeland in case of atomic war.

Okinawa is known as "the billion-dollar base," but that figure can't include all Uncle Sam has invested here. The whole island is one mighty base. Military and civilian roads, telephone systems, water and power networks are completely integrated.

Bases on Japan have been emasculated, so far as any true strength is concerned, because of left-wing opposition to nuclear weapons or the basing there of planes or vessels which transport them.

"We are here to meet our security arrangements with our allies," Caraway declared. "We're here to protect the Western Pacific from aggression."

Caraway retires Aug. 1 and will be succeeded by Lt. Gen. Albert Watson II. The job is the nearest thing the United States has had to a governor-general in the Pacific since it gave up the Philippines. And that is the position some Americans in Okinawa want Caraway and his successor to have.

"We need an organic act by Congress which will put the Ryukyus in a commonwealth status, such as we have Puerto Rico, Guam, or used to have the Philippine Islands," says Howard McClellan, president of the American Chamber of Commerce on Okinawa.

McClellan and other Americans here hold that a commonwealth status is necessary until such time as the islands revert to Japan.

Harkey contended the shooting was a brutal cold blooded murder which he said was attested to by the fact that Wyatt was shot four times and Mrs. Wyatt, three times.

Profiles of Candidates for Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Here are capsule profiles of Arkansas' candidates for governor:

FOR GOVERNOR

ORVAL E. FAUBUS is 54, a native of Combs in Madison County and a five-year veteran in the governor's office. He was a highway commissioner, highway director and a governor's aide in the administration of former Gov. Sid McMath and he was publishing a weekly newspaper at Huntsville when he upset Gov. Francis Cherry's second term bid in 1954. He now has won four straight Democratic primaries without a runoff. In 1957-58 he gained international attention by using National Guard troops to block integration of Little Rock Central High School and by closing Little Rock schools against integration. He and his wife, Alta, have one son, Farrell, a lawyer at Huntsville.

JOE HUBBARD, 32, ended an 11-year U.S. Army career to run for governor. He is a native of Success in Clay County and that is still his official residence. He and his wife, Madelyn, and their three children have lived since 1961 at Russellville where Hubbard was an instructor in the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Arkansas Tech. Hubbard's candidacy is linked with Dollars for Democracy, a fund drive organized by John Tatum of Danville. Hubbard is a graduate of Ouachita Baptist College.

E. T. (Gene) Ridgeway, 43, was a resident of Norfolk, Va., when he decided to run for governor of Arkansas. He is eligible, he says, because he kept his poll tax paid up at Newport his former home. It was at Newport in 1955 that Ridgeway pleaded guilty to embezzlement of public funds while he was a delinquent tax collector for Jackson County. He drew a five-year prison term. He was paroled by Gov. Orval E. Faubus in 1957 and pardoned by Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon in 1959. He ran unsuccessfully for sheriff in Jackson County in 1954 and 1960 and for mayor of Newport in 1962. He said he quit a $12,000-a-year job with a Norfolk trailer firm to return to Arkansas.

ODELL DORSEY, 35, has had a political itch for two years. He announced for governor in 1962 but stayed out of the race because, he says, he lacked political experience. He says he has spent the last two years getting ready for this race. Dorsey was born in the Walnut Ridge community of Grant County, between Redfield and Sheridan. He now lives on a farm on Highway 167, eight miles north of Sheridan. Dorsey is a graduate of Maheshvale High School and he attended the Little Rock Trade School. He established an electrical contracting business in North Little Rock 7½ years ago. He also has an interest in an insurance business. He and his wife, Ellen, have three children. He has never sought political office before.

R. D. BURROW, 54, was born in Randolph County, north of Pocatontos, but he has lived for 38 years at Walnut Ridge where he operates a hardware and furniture business. In recent years he has bought radio time and discussed his philosophies on the air. This is his first political race. "I've never run and I've never been beaten," he declares. He said he has nothing against Faubus but he believes 10 years is enough for one man to hold an office and adds, "I'll quit when I've served 10 years."

Burrow is married and has a 17-year-old daughter.

WINTHROP ROCKEFELLER, 52, expected no opposition in the Republican primary and he got none. A New Yorker, grandson of John D. Rockefeller, whose name has become a synonym for wealth, Rockefeller moved to Arkansas in 1953 to escape his image as a metropolitan playboy. He established a model cattle-breeding farm on Petit Jean Mountain and quickly became a business, civic and cultural leader. His Winrock Enterprises is one of the state's largest homebuilders. He is best known for his work as chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission from which he resigned to run for governor. He is married to the former Jeannette Edris Bartley of Seattle. He has a son, Winthrop Paul, 14, by a former marriage.

KENNETH HURST is 49, a Clarendon supermarket operator. He has no previous political experience, and is the States Rights Party candidate for governor. He was nominated at a convention in a North Little Rock home. Hurst said he helped form the White Citizens Council in Arkansas and he said he was a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

A Choice of Assassins

THE STORY: Jenny Davis comes to Tony Malcolm with an invitation to her mother's party.

XVIII

"We didn't like it here at first, Mommy hated it. But now she's changed her mind. We may stay all winter."
"Would you like that?"
"When Mommy's happy it's all right anywhere."
"And she's happy now?"
"Well, I think she is." She frowned faintly, as if uncertain of how to explain this phenomenon. "It's because of Paco, I guess."

Malcolm had noticed Paco and Coralee together in his tours of the village. They strolled the streets, chattered over coffee in the cafes, went hand in hand up the trails to the mountains. Coralee rode behind him on his bright little scooter, laughing inordinately at this madness, and hugging Paco's slim waist with happy, possessive excitement.

"So your mother and Paco are good friends?"
"Yes, he comes by every day. And he has dinner with her at night. They must like each other a lot. I guess they will get married."

"Would you like that?"
She sighed gently. "I don't know. But he's going to be rich. That would be nice. I could go to school in Switzerland."

Something rang a bell in Malcolm's mind; and that illusion of sound reminded him of Toni's name. "So Paco's going to be rich, eh?" He smiled at Jenny. "How will he manage that little trick?"

"I don't know, but he brags a lot to Mommy. He doesn't tell me anything much. I asked him once, because he was talking about buying a boat to sail in, and he said boom-boom and started laughing as if that was the funniest joke in the world."

"Boom-boom?"
"That's what he said. Mommy laughed too, so I guess it must be funny." She stood abruptly. "I've got to go now. Can you come to the party?"

Boom - boom! That meant guns then, Malcolm thought. If he could find out a bit more, it shouldn't be too difficult to piece together a story that Toni could trade to the policeman for her passport.

"Will Paco be there?"
"Oh, sure."

Malcolm decided to go to the party. "Tell your mother I'll be happy to come."

Jenny hesitated at the door. She looked up at him uncertainly. "Would you do me a favor?"

"Yes, if I can."

"You can, but only if you want to. Would you kiss me good-bye?"

"We can only be good friends, you understand," Malcolm said, trying to tease a smile from her grave little face. "Because I've got a gal in Kalamazoo, and she'd hit the ceiling if she thought I was traipsing around with some little blonde in Spain."

Jenny turned swiftly for the door, averting her face from him, but he had already seen the helpless flash of tears in her eyes. He took her shoulders, and turned her around gently.

"I just don't want you to laugh at me, that's all."

"I'm sorry, Jenny." He pulled her close and kissed her damp smooth cheek. "Are we friends again?"

"I guess so."

"All right, as a friend, can I ask you this: do you miss your father very much?"

She turned her head to one side and looked down at the floor. "Yes, I miss him," she said.

"How often do you see him?"

"I don't see him at all. I never will see him," she said. "It's what Mommy calls a package deal. He didn't want either of us any more."

"You can't visit him?"
"No, he's got two other children now. I mean, the woman he married had them already. They don't want us to get mixed up together. I really do miss him and it hurts all the time."

She began to cry then, and Malcolm pulled her close to him and held her tightly in his arms.

Malcolm took his handkerchief and dabbed at the tears on her cheeks. "Let me tell you something," he said. "If you're crying for him, that's fine because he's a fool. But if you're crying for yourself, stop it. In the first place it won't help things. Secondly, your lonely little pain will dry up and wither away if you stop nourishing it with tears. Thirdly, Jenny dear, nothing matters one way or the other, so why not live with the truth, instead of agonizing over a lie?"

No Proof Sky Objects Are Threat

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has investigated more than 8,000 reported unidentified flying objects in 16 years "and has yet to discover any evidence that UFO's represent a threat" to U.S. security.

It also said today that probes of such sightings back to 1947 have failed to turn up any evidence that UFOs are "alien interplanetary space vehicles under some form of intelligent control."

This report was furnished to The Associated Press as the Air Force looked into a new epidemic of strange sightings in the skies over New Mexico.

One of the Air Force's leading civilian consultants on UFO's has gone to Socorro, N.M., to investigate the latest reports. He is Dr. J. Allen Hynek, director of the Dearborn Observatory at Northwestern University.

The latest report on "Project Bluebook," the congressionally ordered Air Force study of unidentified flying objects, extends through 1963.

It shows that over that 16-year span, 7.7 per cent of the 8,128 reported cases remain unidentified.

The Air Force is not conceding that there is anything sinister about these unexplained sightings. It just says, in effect, they can't be correlated with any known objects or phenomena.

It was stressed that a "great majority of the unidentified cases occurred during the first five years of the project," before analysis techniques were sharpened.

Last year there were 392 UFO reports and only 15 are still listed as unidentified.

These included "two objects described as an ear of corn and a banana (which) performed a da and subversion.

The British counterargument to the U.S. boycott policy is that the boycott is not really effective, that the United States trades with various Communist countries including the Soviet Union, and that Britain traditionally trades with all countries regardless of political considerations.

Britain made a deal with the Castro government last January to sell Cuba 450 buses and spare parts at a total cost in excess of $12 million. France followed with a deal to sell trucks to Castro. The United States protested against both sales.

WHAT IS BEST TIME TO CHANGE A CHILD'S SCHOOL? By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Ideally, a youngster would start in first grade, and continue in the same school, with the same friends, at least until junior high.

But there are many reasons why parents may decide that sometime it would be wiser if the youngster started a new school. Sometimes, there's no choice, father has a new job in a new city, and the question becomes whether the child should be allowed to finish up the term, or leave immediately.

In making your decision, it may help to know what Dr. Robert Ziller and Dr. Richard Bellinger of the University of Delaware discovered. They carried out an intensive study of the role of the newcomer.

Girls, they found, were accepted in a new school sooner than boys. This is quite startling to many parents, who assume that their boys can "take it." But girls are socially more mature, and this makes the situation easier for them. When the new boy is given a rough time, it's much rougher than that of the new girl. But the boy is less likely to report back home about his first - fights and beatings while a new girl who is teased will seek comfort from mother.

Age A Factor
The age at which you change schools will also determine your child's adjustment. Children in grades 1 through 3 have a much easier time becoming part of the group than in grades 4 to 6. You might move a second-grader in the last month of the term, and she might adjust to the new school with far more ease than you adjust to the new neighborhood.

However, by fourth grade, a special system has been set up that is as complicated as those of the adult world. Adult values are noticed. "Does your father have a big car?" "What church do you attend?" And in addition to adult values, there are the childish ones. "Do you have a dog?" "A knife?" or "A pony?" "How late can you stay up?" "Are you good at baseball or series of maneuvers near Vandalia, Ohio" last Sept. 15.

Others involved "an unusual observation of four pink wheels" moving west over New Jersey, an object that exploded into a ball of fire near St. Gallen, Switzerland, a recurring series of flashes near Warrenville, Ill., and the like.

Air Force sleuths decided that one woman who turned in a UFO report actually had seen spots before her eyes.

Thought For The Day

Let every one ascertain his special business or calling, and then stick to it, if he would be successful. —Franklin said it.

Calendar Of Events

The Freshman class of Blains Training School will present its annual play, a 3-act Farce Comedy, "Everybody's Crazy", in the school gymnasium Friday night, May 8, at 7:00 o'clock. Admission — 15c, 25, 35c.

A.M.E. Session Opens

May 6 in Cincinnati
A record total of 1,067 accredited delegates will attend the 37th general conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church opening in Cincinnati, Ohio Wednesday, May 6. The general conference, governing body of the one and one-half million member denomination will be held at the 14,000-seat Cincinnati Gardens and annex. The latter will serve as an exhibit and delegation meeting area.

In addition to the delegates from within the continental U. S., overseas or foreign delegates are expected from South, West and Southwest Africa, the West Indies, and Canada. The South African delegation of approximately six clergy and laymen will be headed by Bishop Francis H. Gow, who presides over the African Methodist work in that area.

Housing and transportation of the overseas delegation is a responsibility of the Home and Foreign Missionary department of the church. Dr. A. Chester Clark of New York is secretary-treasurer.

A roster of delegates released from the Washington, D.C. office of Dr. Robert W. Mance, financial secretary, shows that of the 13 domestic Episcopal districts 761 out of 951 or 80.02 per cent were male. The states of Florida and Mississippi have 22 and 23 female delegates out of the total 190 women.

This general conference—the first was held in Baltimore in the year 1816—is expected to produce a number of important developments, some of far-reaching effect in several areas.

(To Discuss School Merger)
Extended debate is expected on the proposed merger of the nine A. M. E. sponsored secondary schools and colleges. Among these are Morris Brown college, Atlanta, Ga.; Edward Waters college, Jacksonville, Fla.; Daniel Payne college, Birmingham, Ala.; Paul Quinn college, Waco, Texas; Shorter college, North Little Rock, and Kittrell college, N. C.

(Bishops To Be Elected) with most of the 18 Episcopal districts supporting a favorite son candidate, the race for episcopal honors is expected to produce considerable interest. A record number of candidates are expected to file for the two vacancies caused by the deaths of Bishop Frank Madison Reid and Bishop Samuel R. Higgins.

One major piece of legislation almost certain to come up for General Conference vote will be the matter of developing an adequate ministerial retirement pay system. This question, under study by a professional team of pension experts for several months will provide everyone of the more than 5,000 A. M. E. ministers with a self-insured and guaranteed retirement income.

Although a tentative commitment to visit the General Conference had been received from the late President John F. Kennedy, it is not yet known whether President Lyndon B. Johnson will be able to accept the invitation.

Bishop Eugene C. Hatcher,

Cleveland, host bishop, has extended the invitation to the Chief Executive. Official sources have indicated that the matter is being given serious consideration. Hon Robert Taft, Jr., Ohio Congressman, will be the principal speaker at a May 5 banquet honoring bishops, general officers, college presidents and delegates attending the General Conference.

The Sunday School and the Junior Church of the Garrett Chapel Baptist Church will sponsor

God's Soil

...and it's time to conserve it...time to save it! It is evident, when we witness the increased destruction of timber lands, national cover crops and wide-spread erosion, America needs a national Save-The-Soil-Week. It is urgent that we treat Mother Earth with greater respect and appreciation. We must give back to her as much as we take away. There's no better time than during National Save-The-Soil-Week, to come to a full realization that "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." We are stewards, appointed by God, to look after the earth He gave us. It is time to renew your faith in God and the Good Earth.
